EW YORK, July 1.— The notification today at the headquarters of Charles H. Hughes that the Republican candidate will be officially nominated at his instance some time between July 20 and 25. The notification meeting will be held in Carnegie Hall—on the afternoon, and one of the striking features will be the presence of Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft among prominent Republicans who will occupy the platform.

At that time, it is believed, the Mexican situation will be sufficiently developed for the Republican Presidential candidate to discuss it, and it is known that Hughes will speak at length upon its speech of acceptance, and will deal fully with the Democratic administration and the manner in which it has handled the Mexican problem.

Before leaving today for the Adirondacks, where he will remain until after Fourth of July, William R. Wilcox, chairman of the Republican National Committee, announced that the Committee and Executive Committees would appoint next week. It also is understood that the "steering committee," which includes a treasurer of the National Committee to succeed George R. Shultz, who has resigned and announced he will not again accept the post, will be appointed.

The Women's National Committee of Hughes' Alliance opened headquarters today. It was said that branches being organized throughout the country.

The first meeting of the full committee will be held July 1 at the home of Mrs. Hughes at Roslyn, Long Island, after which there will be a reception to the Republican nomination and Mrs. Hughes.

HUGHES IS FRAMING ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

RIDGEHAMPTON, N. Y., July 1.— E. Hughes, the Republican Presidential nominee, here on his first visitation in ten years, spent today in vacation style. He golled a little, dressed a little and devoted the remainder of the day just to walking about.

Hughes had few callers today. To those who saw him the nominee made his intention of spending all the time before the campaign will be the latter part of August. By that time, he will have been in New York, equipped with all the facts figures he intends to use up to its operations were effected in silence.

Those Who Failed to Pass

A different reception was given the men who failed to pass. They trailed down the road to Colobec, three miles from Ridgehampton, the regular training station of the troops, and sixteen of the Third, performing "full duty" by manning ropes and hauling the transport wagons up and down the mountain roads, were loading the last flat cars. Despite their disappointment, the rejected men tried to march as if on parade, their comrades cheering many of them who had served two or three terms of service. They will be dismissed and selections which he makes. Mr. Hughes will frame his speech, adapting it to his own ideas.

Hughes, to whom the former Progressives with whom he has come since his nomination, suggested him as "my adviser," is aiding her husband, and minor suggestions of hers were added in that part of the first draft.

WENONAH CELEBRATION

Programme for July 4

Planned by Dr. Lorenz

ENONAH, N. J., July 1.— Fourth will have a greater significance in 1916 than ever before. The palaces of the situation on the Mexican border and the fact that a number of Wenonah boys have gone to the front added an absorbing interest to the celebration.

The celebration is in charge of Dr. C. Lorenz, president of the Wenonah Academy. The day will open with a military parade ground, followed by a baseball game and other sports, speeches of prominence and a gorgeous military parade, concluding with fireworks in the evening.

Women of the Second Regiment here today called a meeting for Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at the Second Regiment Armory, Broad and Diamond streets, Philadelphia. The purpose of this will be to raise funds for the relief of the regiment and to take up measures for the relief of soldiers' families.

Leaves Hospital—Drove Auto When Miss Tower Was Killed

After spending several weeks in the Germantown Hospital as the result of injuries received when Miss Gertrude Tower was killed, Thomas Harvey Dougherty left the institution yesterday and went to his home in Germantown.

Mr. Dougherty was injured when the automobile he was driving overturned and threw out Miss Tower. He is still suffering from the injuries he received in the accident.

Mr. Dougherty was examined at the hospital by several specialists who were of the opinion that his recovery would be more speedy if he were removed to his home. Coroner Knight stated that he would not hold the inquest in the death of Miss Tower until Mr. Dougherty was recovered fully.

PARK GUARD SAVES BOY

Leaps Into Wissahickon Creek After Unconscious Lad

Without waiting a moment, Park Guard Byron Riley leaped into the Wissahickon Creek, near Rittenhouse street, yesterday morning and saved a nine-year-old Edward M. Mather, a German teenager, from drowning.

The boy waited too far out in the creek and as he slipped beyond his depth he fell, striking his head. Autocrats, who heard the boy's cries before he fell, rushed to the scene.

Two policemen were dismissed yesterday by Superintendent of Police Robert M. Conroy, Michael J. Corcoran, of the Twelfth and Pine street stations, were charged with being intoxicated while on duty, while Policeman Raymond A. Branion, of the Park and Lehigh avenues station, was absent from duty without leave.

CLAIMS OF STRIKING MACHINISTS DENIED

45 Per Cent. of Union Men
Have Not Walked Out, Local Manufacturers Say

Fully 7000 Demand Eight-hour
Day and Wage Increase, Agent of Employees' Association States

Claims that more than forty per cent. of the union machinists of Philadelphia and vicinity walked out on a strike yesterday met with emphatic denial from manufacturers individually. Speaking for the machinists, Thomas L. Wilson, business agent of District No. 1 of the International Association of Machinists, declared that fully 7000 men had gone on strike yesterday demanding an eight-hour day and a wage increase.

The action followed a letter sent out to the manufacturers by the leaders of the machinists on June 15, asking the establishment of an eight-hour day by July 1. The matter was discussed by the manufacturers, who declined to accede to the demands made upon them by the men.

It was pointed out by the employers that the exceedingly abnormal conditions now existing did not warrant a curtailment of working hours. To the contrary it was argued by the employers that there should be a continuance of the prevailing hours so that production and wages might be increased to the greatest possible extent.

The manufacturers stated that the present condition in the metal trades industry was due not to a natural and healthy increase of business, but to the war in Europe. At the present time machinists and metal workers in and around Philadelphia are receiving the highest wages in the history of the industry, it was said, and after the war both manufacturer and laborer will face the productions of cheap labor in Europe.

The employers assume the attitude that the eight-hour day demanded by the men is uneconomical. It would place upon concerns endeavoring to carry out contracts a heavy burden, they adding that this burden would be borne by the company at least in part.

They will be consulted and selections which he makes. Mr. Hughes will frame his speech, adapting it to his own ideas.

Mr. Hughes, to whom the former Progressives with whom he has come since his nomination, suggested him as "my adviser," is aiding her husband, and minor suggestions of hers were added in that part of the first draft.

General Clement said that no orders had been received to mobilize the Third Brigade, now on strike duty.

The Philadelphia cavalry troops are declared to be in splendid condition. Stores have not been issued to them, but this will follow. The men have been vaccinated and inoculated against typhoid fever, and medical inspection is looking for it in about a week.

Women of the Second Regiment here today called a meeting for Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at the Second Regiment Armory, Broad and Diamond streets, Philadelphia. The purpose of this will be to raise funds for the relief of the regiment and to take up measures for the relief of soldiers' families.

RECORD FOR WEDDINGS

Marriage License Bureau Issued 2407 Permits During June

All previous records for marriage licenses issued during the month of June, the banner month of the year, were surpassed this year, when 2407 licenses were issued, which is a gain of 359 over last year's figures.

This year has not only produced a record month, but also the largest number issued for one day, which was 160, set on last Sunday, as compared with 131 for the former record.

To these figures there has been an increase of 1803 licenses for the first half of this year over the first six months of 1915. Up until the last day of June there were 6011 licenses issued this year, while 7076 permits were granted for the same period of time last year.

Similarly, the Russian organization will represent in Russia the American chamber of commerce.

The Polish-American Club of the city, which has organized in the past year, will take care of me, he said. If I discuss the affair now, it may displease those representing me.

Scott, who has been suspended pending an investigation into the affair, refused to talk of the same.
