

Budget of Fresh News Gleaned from all Sections of this Big State

GIGANTIC UNDERTAKING OF NOTED MUSICIAN, A LIFE STUDENT OF BACH

Mass in B Minor of Old Master Will Be Completely Memorized by Immense Chorus

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—The anniversary of the birth of Johann Sebastian Bach, the great German "master of instruments" and composer of the "Mass in B Minor," has been celebrated in Philadelphia by the Philadelphia Bach Society, which has organized a chorus of 100 voices to perform the mass in B minor, giving the first performance of the work in this city.

Professor J. Frederick Wolfe

THEY WILL HONOR OUR FATHERS' DEEDS

One Hundred and Thirty-Third Anniversary of Battle of Brandywine to Be Celebrated by Old Veterans and National Guard of Pennsylvania To-day

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—Tomorrow will be the anniversary of the 133rd anniversary of the battle of Brandywine, which was fought on September 26, 1777. The anniversary will be celebrated by the National Guard of Pennsylvania and the Old Veterans of the battle.

HE WROTE "OLD FOLKS AT HOME"

Author of "The Old Folks at Home" is the subject of a play to be staged at the University City Club

The Stephen C. Foster Monument to be Dedicated at Highland Park, Philadelp., To-morrow

SHE WANTED FLAG HAD HER HONY

Had Friend Return to Her After Stomach Trouble That Way She West Escorted

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 10.—Only two days ago the young woman who was known as "The Girl in the Red Dress" was seen in Philadelphia.

PROMINENT POLITICIAN MAKES ASSIGNMENT

Forty Thousand Dollars Assesses as Fifty Thousand Dollars

BEST VINEGAR 2c Quart 8c Gallon

Best of the Best... G. M. DUNLAP LEANING CANN CO.

BETHLEHEM FAIR OPENS TO-DAY

Thousands Are Wending Their Way to the Pennsylvania State Grounds and the Place Itself is a Scene of the Busiest Activity

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—All roads lead to the Pennsylvania State grounds today, for thousands of people are flocking to the annual exhibition of the kind ever held in Eastern Pennsylvania.

There are hundreds on more grand street scenes among the best known that have ever been seen in the State.

It will be in charge of Governor C. E. Hoover, the report who made the famous speech in the State House on September 22, 1900.

INQUIRER'S LOCOMOBILE AT FAIR

The thousands of visitors to the Bethlehem Fair this week will be attracted to the Inquirer's locomobile.

GOVERNOR STONE HAS BUSY DAY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—Gov. Stone has a very busy day today, with many appointments.

REPORTER CAUSED WOMAN'S DEATH

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 10.—A reporter for the Philadelphia Inquirer is charged with causing the death of a woman.

WILL GO TO TRENTON

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—The Inquirer's locomobile will go to Trenton tomorrow.

WOMEN'S FEET

are nearly all... Health is women's right... There is one relief open to all women.

Miss Marie Friday, of Lodi, Pa., who has been cured of her kidney trouble.

HAD THOUSANDS, HE STARVED TO DEATH

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—John Lattin, 82 years old, a miser, was found dead in his bed here this afternoon.

GOVERNOR STONE HAS BUSY DAY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—Gov. Stone has a very busy day today, with many appointments.

REPORTER CAUSED WOMAN'S DEATH

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 10.—A reporter for the Philadelphia Inquirer is charged with causing the death of a woman.

WILL GO TO TRENTON

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—The Inquirer's locomobile will go to Trenton tomorrow.