

THEY PLIGHTED VOWS SEATED IN LOCOMOBILE

Novel Wedding Ceremony Was Performed at Glen Rock a Few Days Ago—Couple Wanted to Have Unique Marriage and They Had It

Mr. and Mrs. Gerbrick, of Glen Rock, Who Were Married While Seated in a Locomobile

Special to The Inquirer.

HANOVER, Oct. 29.—Seated in a locomobile in front of their future home at Glen Rock, Miss Rebecca Trout and Levi Gerbrick were married a few days ago by Rev. J. B. Wolf. The couple desired to have a novel wedding ceremony and soon after their engagement Miss Trout suggested that they be married in a locomobile. Mr. Gerbrick acquiesced, and with a little persuasion Rev. Wolf consented to tie the knot. The horseless carriage was accordingly procured and on the appointed day the happy couple were wedded in the presence of a host of friends.

They received congratulations seated in the locomobile and then rode to the railway station. It is the opinion of their friends that they ought to have easy travelling through life.

Wed in a Locomobile.

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Fri, Dec 18, 2020